Monday 22nd June 2020 – Year 1 Overview

Good morning everyone we hope you've had a lovely weekend!

Phonics

The sound we are focusing on today is the ai sound again but trying to spot the sound in words through the paragraph. This is for all the different spellings for this sound such as: ay, ai, a-e, ea, ey,

Use the sheets named Year 1 Monday 22.6 ai phoneme spotter. You could then get your child to try and spell words with the correct spelling of ai. For example; rain, play, cake, great, grey etc.

For this week we will be focusing on the letter u and forming it accurately by practising the letter by itself and forming it in words such as: under, unicorn, up, unhappy

Mental Maths

Counting in 2's, 5's and 10's again. Try to recall some of the multiplication facts to ensure your child is becoming more confident with this.

That's all for Monday – well done for being amazing everyone!! See you all tomorrow.
